
CONTENTS

INFORMATION FOR THE READERS

Social assistance and social work in the era of dynamic changes	5
---	---

THE VISAGES AND DIMENSIONS OF SOCIAL WORK

Kazimiera Wódz, Ewa Leśniak-Berek – Contribution of the Social Work Study of the Institute of Sociology the University of Silesia in the process of professionalisation of the social worker profession – historical outline	7
Andrzej Niesporek – Building symbolic boundaries. The case study of cultural conditions of social workers professional activity	26
Sabina Pawlas-Czyż – Oncological social work as the support for the family faced with the disease	41
Daniela Dzienniak-Pulina – On the necessity of activities of Public Relations in social work	58
Barbara Ślania – Roma community in Poland as beneficiaries of welfare activities	71
Dariusz Szrejder – Welfare (not) welcomed. A few words about NIMBY for social workers	91
Kazimiera Wódz, Krystyna Faliszek – The ups and downs of the professionalization of social work in Poland after 1990. The comments on the debate	108

REFLECTIONS OF THE PRACTICE IN THE FIELD OF SOCIAL WORK

Blanka Długi – Innovative solutions in social work	125
Agnieszka Sekunda – Social worker's experience with regard to counteracting domestic violence on the basis of the project "A shelter for years is a house, mom and dad" – A child-friendly patrol	139
Magdalena Helena Badora – A social project as a tool for strengthening the care and educational potential of the parents – a case study on the example of the Konopiska municipality	150
Marcin Jaros – Social work in probation	165
Witold Mandrysz – Participation of inhabitants in revitalization programmes. From diagnosis to implementation – the case of Town Wojkowice	180
Maciej Klimek – Restructuring through fall – social problems in a small post-industrial city. Example of the Wojkowice Commune	199
Ewa Leśniak-Berek – Project management in social work based on the example of social projects carried out in the Study of Social Work of the Institute of Sociology the University of Silesia	225
Notes about Authors	248
Reviewers 2018	253