

Social welfare in the 2nd Republic of Poland

Edited by Mikołaj Brenka, Krzysztof Chaczko, Rafał Płasek

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Mikołaj Brenk, Krzysztof Chaczko, Rafał Płasek, Social welfare in the 2nd Republic of Poland – introduction to source texts	7
--	---

REFERENCES

1. Legal regulations of social welfare	23
1.1. Motion of MP (Member of Parliament), priest Wacław Bliziński and the National People's Union (Narodowe Zjednoczenie Ludowe NZL) club on the adoption of the Social Welfare Act (March 4, 1921)	23
1.2. Fragment of the Polish Parliament's discussion before the adoption of the Social Welfare Act (May 31, 1922)	25
1.3. Speech by MP Zofia Praussowa on the main assumptions of the Social Welfare Act (June 27, 1923)	28
1.4. The Act of August 16, 1923 on Social Welfare	36
1.5. Ordinance of the President of the Republic of Poland of March 6, 1928 on the separation of care obligations of municipal associations	39
1.6. Ordinance of the President of the Republic of March 6, 1928 on social guardians and social welfare commissions	42
1.7. Regulation of the Minister of Labour and Social Welfare of April 11, 1929 regarding the establishment of social guardians and performance of their duties	48
2. Theoretical sources of social welfare	53
2.1. Helena Radlińska, The essence and scope of social service (1928)	53
2.2. Helena Radlińska, Social research and social work practice (1932)	60
2.3. Konstanty Krzeczkowski, Comments on social welfare routes (1936) ...	65
2.4. Theses of the most important changes in the legislation on social welfare (1938)	89
2.5. Maria Aszoff, Guardian interview (1938)	91
2.6. Konstanty Krzeczkowski, Three stages of the social welfare (1938)	98
2.7. Jan Starczewski, Dangers of the harmfulness of social welfare (1939)	109
2.8. Jerzy Langrod, Kazimierz Ogrodzki, Social welfare (1939)	112

TABLE OF CONTENTS

3. Practical arrangements of social welfare	122
3.1. Diaries of the unemployed (1933)	122
3.2. Tytus Czaki, Cooperation of social workers with the Centres (1937)	139
3.3. Bolesław Nakonecznikow-Klukowski, Review of the most current issues in the field of assistance policy (1938)	144
Noty o Autorach	156