

Between supporting the family and protecting the child from abuse – role, tasks, ethical dilemmas of family assistants

Edited by Izabela Krasiejko

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Izabela Krasiejko, Introduction	5
HISTORY OF THE NATIONAL FAMILY ASSISTANTS MEETINGS
Izabela Krasiejko, National Meetings of Family Assistants as a forum of experience exchange and training for the family support system staff	7
THE PROFESSIONAL ROLE OF THE FAMILY ASSISTANT IN THE LIGHT OF THEORETICAL CONSIDERATIONS AND SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH
Izabela Kamińska-Jatczak, Features of activities influencing development of the Other – analysis of the activity of family assistants	23
Ewa Dybowska, Katarzyna Wojtanowicz, Supporting the family from the perspective of a family assistant	45
Małgorzata Szpunar, Balancing in the role of a professional family assistant – from a distanced concern to an institutional trap	59
Marta Czechowska-Bieluga, Barbara Sordyl-Lipnicka, Professional role of family assistants in the light of qualitative analyses	79
Mirela Lubińska-Tomczak The state of family assistance profession in Poland. Conclusions from own research	99
DIFFERENT AREAS OF FAMILY ASSISTANT WORK
Renta Krawczyk, “I will sacrifice myself for you.” About the phenomenon of parentification in the family	113
Magdalena Zmysłowska, Family assistant in meanders of foster care – the perspective of working with the biological family of a child placed in foster care environment . . .	138
Anna Banasiak, Agata Niezabitowska, Family assistant opportunities in the area of supporting family with a child with autism spectrum (ASD)	155
Monika Czerw, Agnieszka Muchacka-Cymerman, A sense of support felt by families raising children with disabilities	175