

Table of Content

Foreword

Anna Odrowąż-Coates	7
---------------------------	---

Introduction

Stephen Ogheneruro Okpadah and Jacinta Nkiruka Akaenyi	9
--	---

Part I

QUESTIONING THE CONCEPT OF 'OTHER'

Locating Janusz Korczak's Pedagogical Approach in the Cinema of Social Inclusion in Africa and Beyond

Stephen Ogheneruro Okpadah	13
----------------------------------	----

English Code-Mixing as a Symbol of Status and Intellect, Linguistic Imperialism in Quetta, Baluchistan

Kinza Alizai	27
--------------------	----

Social Inclusion and Ayurveda – A Critical Review

Mahesh T.S.	41
------------------	----

Part II

THE STRUGGLE FOR SOCIAL INCLUSION

An Analysis of the Socio-Economic and Political Consequences of International Migration between Underdeveloped and Developed Countries

Jibrin Ubale Yahaya	61
---------------------------	----

The Situation and Development of Syrian Women Refugees in Europe

Helena Kozinska	85
-----------------------	----

Women in the Scientific Elite. The Inter-relation of gender identity, stereotypes and the academic roles in the careers of women scientist in Hungary

Izolda Takács	95
---------------------	----

Constituting a New Archetype of Moroccan Female Detainees' Empowerment through Prison Theatre

El Houcine Ouazzani Ibrahim, Sanae Amrani Jai	119
---	-----

Part III
IMPRISONMENT AND SOCIAL INCLUSION

Evaluating the Effect of 'Prison Break' on Audience Perception of Prison and Incarceration Julius Omokhunu, Okechukwu Chukwuma, Olasunkanmi Idogun	137
Prison, Protest, Pride and Poetry Shubhanku Kochar, M. Anjum Khan	159
The Burden of Detention on African writers: the Wole Soyinka and Ngugi Wa Thiong'o Experience Bernard Steiner Ifekwe	171
Prison and Violence in Nigerian Theatre: A Study of Bolanle Austen-Peters' Saro The Musical 2 and Fela and the Kalakuta Queens Tekena Gasper Mark	181
Biographical Notes	193