

Title of course: Early Intervention – Inclusive Practice

Lecturer: prof. dr hab. Anna Odrowąż-Coates i mgr Jan Gierzyński

Description:

The course will comprise two parts dedicated to inclusion of children in pedagogical praxis: Part 1 - dedicated to the issues of neglect and challenging parenting environments – how to deal with inclusion – how to create safe spaces and make decisions for the best of children. Part 2 – dedicated to neurodiversity and autism spectrum disorders, early intervention and preventing social exclusion. Some of the materials will be provided by the UK social services, some of the materials will be provided by the outcomes of the EU funded project [2024-1-PL01-KA220-HED-000246304] aimed at empowering preservice teachers to support young children with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) through early intervention strategies. Students will be expected to be present and make small weekly tasks and readings.
